Ballinderry N.S. The B.O.M. along with the Parents Association are holding their annual fundraising day at the school on Sunday December 9th from 1 pm onwards. This is a very special day in the school calendar and one that is enjoyed by family and friends. We have our 'Wheel of fortune' where you can win some fabulous prizes. Santa will be there with his gifts for the children. Face painting will also be available. On the day we will have the draw for our big Raffle where the top prize is a Smart TV. Light refreshments will be served throughout the day. So, come along to Ballinderry N.S. on Sunday December 9th at 1pm for an enjoyable afternoon.

Study Group Interest is being expressed in setting up a supervised study group for secondary school students in the parish. This would take place in a room in Cummer NS.

It is just in the early stages at the moment. The group concerned need to see what kind of uptake there might be, before proceeding. The hours are looking like being 6:00pm-8:00pm Monday to Friday. There may be a possibility of Saturday morning, if there is sufficient interest. If you have a secondary school student and feel you might want to avail of this service, please contact Teresa 087 2452573 for further information.
