

Newsletter

AGM

The Annual General Meeting of Corofin GAA Club will be held in Belclare Community Hall on Friday at 8.00 pm sharp. We urge all members to attend. Full details of the AGM are available on the Club website.

GALA CELEBRATION

Come join us on Saturday 29 December at The Clayton Hotel to celebrate the tremendous achievements of 2018 and more, in what was an outstanding year in the history of our Club. Tickets are now on sale and selling fast at €50 per person and include a four course dinner. We have a fantastic entertainment line-up with a welcome by Corofin Scór Group, comedian & impressionist Shane Cunningham, special guests, medal presentations and dancing to The Lewd Tunes, followed by DJ Paddy Healy to finish the night on a high! Galway Bay FM's Ollie Turner will oversee and MC the proceedings with his usual blend of wit and humour. Tickets are limited so get yours before they sell out.

Tickets are available from any of the following Michael Ryder, Jimmy McHugh, John Raftery, Mags Keane, Julie Reilly, Jimmy Sice, Joe Canney, Martin Collins, Brian McDonald, Paddy Healy, Corofin Post Office, Raftery's Centra.

ALL-IRELAND SEMI FINAL

The AIB All-Ireland Club SFC semi-finals will both take place on Saturday, February 16, with Corofin playing Gaoth Dobhair in Carrick-on-Shannon at 1.30pm and Mullinalaghta playing Dr. Crokes in Semple Stadium at 3.30pm.

CONGRATS

Congrats to the Corofin players Ciaran Whiteside, Mathew McCafferkey, Adam O'Grady, Robbie Winston, Oisín Glynn, Finn McIntyre, Eoin Brady and Evan Mortimer who were part of the winning St Jarlath's Juvenile Team that won the Connacht League title in Tuam Stadium on Thursday defeating Presentation College, Athenry.

LOTTO

The lotto numbers drawn were 4, 7, 14, 28. Jackpot was not won and there were four match 3s, Anne Cullinane, Maureen Farrell, Caroline Connaughton and Martin Gormally. The seller's prize went to Patricia Langan. Next week's jackpot is €9,800 and the draw is in the Club Office on Sunday 23 December.

SEASONS GREETINGS

We want to take this opportunity to wish all our members, supporters, friends, and followers everywhere a Happy and Peaceful Christmas and a Joyful and Prosperous New Year – Le gach dea ghúí i gcóir na Nollag agus na hAth bliana.